BANK OF AMERICA ASSAULT SUSPECT

October 28, 2014

DETAILS: On Wednesday, October 8, 2014, at 1:55 PM, the victim arrived at the BANK OF AMERICA, 17512 Crenshaw to make a deposit at the ATM located on the west side of the business.

After completing his transaction, the victim observed a white female adult (pictured below) walking toward him from the south parking lot. The female asked the victim if he could cash a check for her because she was unable to do so due to not having ID in her possession. The victim declined to help her and stated he was in a hurry before walking back to his vehicle. The pictured suspect then approached the victim, stated, "You disrespected my girl." and punched the victim once in the mouth with a closed fist. The suspect then fled west through the parking lot on foot and entered the front passenger side of the suspect vehicle parked on Crenshaw in the northbound lane against the sidewalk.

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION: SUSPECT-1: Black male adult, in his 20s, 6'00 tall, thin build, dark, short, spiky dreadlocks, thin moustache, unknown neck and arm tattoos, wearing a red shirt with red & white "Cocaine" logo on front and khaki pants. SUSPECT-2: White female adult, in her 20s, blonde hair in a bun or ponytail, green or blue eyes, wearing a light green shirt, bright pink skirt or shorts and possibly ankle boots.

Cocaine

SUSP VEH: Dark gray hatchback compact, possibly front spare tire.
